DOES YOUR ADVERTISING PAY?

In the business section of the open shelf library of the Department of Extension of the University of Alberta is a book on "Merchandising" by A. W. Douglas. This little book, which is the result of forty years' experience, treats on all phases of the subject with practical examples for illustration, and is suggestive both to business men and to students. In the chapter on "Advertising" the writer says: "It is probably a true estimate that nearly seventy-five per cent of the money spent in advertising is merely wasted, since it fails to bring adequate results. If this has been your experience in the past why not make an effort this year to get better results, by studying the subjects of advertising and salesmanship from the books in the Open Shelf Library? Here are some of the titles:

Advertising and Selling Practice, by H. B. Opdycke.

Canadian Commercial Correspondence and Business Training, by H. J. Russell.

Increasing Human Efficiency in Business: A contribution to the Psychology of Business, by W. D. Scott.

Principles of Salesmanship, by Harold Whitehead.

Retail Selling and Store Management, by Paul H. Neystrom.

Perhaps the Lomond merchants would build up a strong prestige with their trade if some of the modern ideas illustrated in these books were introduced in their business. A little education club might be carried on in these slow months. It would at least cost no more than the idle gossip that is now indulged in so freely. We, for instance, freely admit a decided lack of understanding on a good many of the topics, and feel safe in "passing the buck" on to the rest of the business men. It's time we all awakened and helped ourselves to the opportunities that are being mailed away to Winnipeg, Regina and Calgary on every train.

O O O O O

To the Editor Lomond Press.

Travers, Alta., Jan. 26, 1920.

Dear Sir I am writing to you discussion on the Catalogues houses. Well you Instant the Mail Order houses seems to get quite a lot of trade and what do they get for instant I bought a pair of over shoes from Hudson bay Lethbridge and a friend of mine bought a pair from the Mail Order house Well I gess mine will last all winter hafe to any how but the other fellows are nearly all gone and there is other things lots of Windmills want lot of repairing and have to wait for repairs and another case of a man sent away for a pair of felt shoes for his daughter and only last a week and sent them back again now if he had bought them from the home stores he would have been fairly wild would he not.

Well if you want a good supply of grocery you dont want to hesitate for a long time but go to Tom Vickers there you get everything you want and he tries to make you feel if the home stores are the ones after all to Jeal with. I got bit once from the mail order house with a cold chisel I hit him on the head and pieces fell all around, I dont know if it flying yet or not. Well this is getting pretty big so must close, hoping to see it in print. Wishing the home stores every success I was fixed like the one fellow that never had as much as a sack of peanuts at Carmangay but my own fault though.

Yours truly,
"An Old Subscriber."

Well, Old Subscriber, since you were good enough to attach your real name you can see yourself in print. Since Tommy serves you so well with groceries, perhaps Buchan or Purcell could have sold you those good overshoes you bought at Lethbridge from the Hudson Bay. To be really consistent, your home-town merchants might give their job printing to their nearest print shop, too.

O O O O O

The principle of loyalty to one's own town is something that cannot be determined by any single act or deal. We have heard of a certain man who refused to patronize a local hardware store because he considered himself at one time beaten out of a half gallon of coal oil. Chances are he has never mentioned it to the merchant who, we are certain, is absolutely in ignorance of any such occurrence. This man is allowing 17½c. to poison his feelings towards the merchant, and is not giving him an opportunity for rectification. This is too small for 1920. We cannot expect satisfactory relations between the public and the merchants if such suspicion is going to be tolerated. Let's all branch out and give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH HOME LIFE

(By Rev. J. E. Hughson, Pastor of Grace Church, Winnipeg)

"The church is a power in the making of character, but the home is a greater power," declared Rev. Dr. Hughson in his sermon, "What is Wrong With Our Home Life", last night in Grace church.

The deepest experiences of life's greatest joys and sorrows are traced back to our homes, where we all begin to solve life's greatest problems," he said. "The call of Jesus is the call to be Christians in our homes, just as much as the call to the missionary fields," he added. Be prepared to ask what is wrong in your home. One of the weaknesses in the homes of today is the loss of that old parental authority, discipline and training of 40 years ago. In those days the rule was that parents controlled their children, but today, it is the other way about," Dr. Hughson declared. The old idea of home-training is rapidly disappearing, and the children of today are living beyond their years. "This is not the children's fault, for it shows that a wrong method of training has been employed. It is our duty to train them right," he said, "and the harder the problem the greater our duty to face it, for the sake of home life. Train and discipline your family and don't let things drift," he appealed. Dr. Hughson also stated that the old religious atmosphere was disappearing, pointing out that in very few homes family prayers were observed. The least that can be done at the family table is to repeat the Lord's Prayer, for the purpose of keeping in your children's minds or suggesting at least a family offer," he said. "For the sake of the home and the children we must use parental authority and bring up the children in an atmosphere of love of home, which will build up a nation that will be true to God, for what an individual is in the home, he everywhere."

GOOD TIME TO GO AFTER PHONES

Lomond town has at last got a telephone exchange in operation and it is the source of amusement among the bigger boys, and it is even possible for some of the anxious wives to keep a tab on their frisky husbands. There will be rural phone petitions go in at once and on account of the existing line between here and Bow City the installation will be greatly simplified.

LOMOND, ALBERTA, JAN. 30, 1920

Last week we drew special attention to the "Cow Bill" advertisement that appears again this week on another page. By this an opportunity is afforded to get into cattle again and get into them right. As it stands there will be more cattle milked in this country next summer than for several years past. A milch cow is mighty pleasant source of revenue on the farm, but in this country a person does not want to take on too many animals at one time.

The Consolidated School rate-payers asked that estimates be prepared on the cost of a new building, yet we understand a number of tin horns are pussy-footing against even this step being taken. We notice they said nothing at the school meeting.

NEIGHBORS

Saturday Evening Post.

Your neighbor is the man whose good opinion you crave. He may live across the street. He may live in another town. Your neighbor makes the high cost of living. Pleasing his standards, or what you imagine to be his standards is the greater part of your financial burden. That is what puts a crimp in your bank balance.

If had no neighbors you could be happy in a house one-half the size of the one you now occupy. A house one-half the size would afford you every needed comfort and furnish less surface for the collection of dust.

You have no particular objection to wearing shoes that have lost their original shape in an effort to conform to the shape of your feet. You have no inborn dislike of patches on pants. A car with four cylinders would serve you as well as one with six or eight.

You cannot economize in these particulars, for economy would lose you the respect of those you are eager to impress. Your neighbor has established a standard. For the sake of his approval you must live up to it. For the sake of your own you must try and excel it.

Neighbors are a costly institution.

From twenty below zero to fifty-seven above in less than twelve hours was our weather experience on Wednesday, and it looked like a regular chinook till about three in the afternoon, when in about five minutes time everything froze up tight and we have been having pretty steady winter ever since. There was enough snow melted while the warm spell lasted to open up what little grass there is on the high land and the stock is holding out fairly well. The horse market is reported to have become pretty firm again, as the heavy winter loss in horses has created an unusual demand. No particular difference can be noticed at Lomond.

CHANCE TO LIFT THE MANGE RESTRICTIONS

Universal dipping of cattle in the territory enclosed by the mange lines will be carried out in Alberta on June 5 and June 15, in accordance with the terms of the resolution passed at a stockmen's meeting with J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, in Calgary a few weeks ago. This announcement was made by the deputy to W. L. Carlyle, manager of the George Lane ranch, at Ottawa a few days ago. It had been anticipated, as Mr. Grisdale gave the stockmen a fair measure of assurance in the matter. Dr. Tolmie, minister of agriculture, having now given his approval, the proposals will be carried into effect.

If the dipping is done thoroughly it will practically mean the end of the so-called mange area in Alberta. The deputy minister is much gratified by the good reports that are coming in, and that it is expected that with close co-operation between the department and the stockmen, we shall have no further trouble in this matter.

Hardwick's dip is the closest outfit to we around Lomond, but we must all comply strictly with the rules and help eradicate this handicap. Perhaps if some agitation was started in time we might get a new outfit established that would be closer and also serve a large area in the south.

Mr. H. B. Ulrich Returns From Advance-Rumely Dealers' School in LaPorte, Indiana.

Mr. Ulrich has just returned from the Advance-Rumely Thresher Company dealers' school at LaPorte. He states that he spent a most profitable and pleasant two weeks as the guest of the Oil-Pull company. We will let him tell his own story.

On arriving at LaPorte, we registered and were assigned to rooms with private families in town, giving a little touch of home life which only a stranger in a strange land knows how to appreciate.

The school was run much like a large university with regular lectures and laboratory classes running from eight in the morning until five at night. Lectures were given by some of the best engineers in the automotive industry. After the lectures we would put on our "overalls" and go into the laboratory and work on the machines. There was an enthusiastic group of men working on motors, transmissions, running tractors, etc. We had, altogether, some 250 dealers from all over the United States and Canada.

One man, a Mr. Rosenius, came all the way from Stockholm, Sweden, to attend the school. He represented a company in Stockholm which handles the Rumely Line in Scandinavia, Russia and Poland.

We made a trip through the entire plant, spending half a day in the Oil-Pull and the same amount of time in the Separator factory. Believe me, it is a whale of a plant. The factory alone covers 85 acres and employs over 2,000 men. Everything is well organized and things sure do run through in a systematic, thorough way.

The spirit within the Advance-Rumely organization is another thing that impressed us. There is a strong sense of loyalty prevailing throughout the whole works which makes the organization seem like one big family.

Another instance of this spirit is shown in the Advance-Rumely club which is made up of the Rumely workers. They have a two-story brick building which they turned over to the dealers. We spent many pleasant hours in the writing room, reading room and billiard rooms, which were so kindly put at our disposal.

This club room was fitted up with a regular stage and everything. We had some great entertainments brought down from Chicago. One night we had the Imperial Quartette which makes records for the Victor company.

Another night we had a boxing entertainment. A regular vaudeville show from the best circuits in Chicago made a big hit. There was a cabaret girl who came down off the stage and kidded us. We will remember that quite a while. After the show there was dancing fixed up for us so that we could get acquainted with the Rumely girls.

The climax of the entertainment was the banquet given at the Masonic hall by the Rumely company as a sort of a farewell party. Some "feed," I claim. During the meal we were entertained by more cabaret—this time by an Hawaiian Hula dancer and an Hawaiian orchestra.

Mr. Ulrich is more enthusiastic than ever about the company and its product and states that he is now in a position to give a personal service to his customers that can't be beat.
